Guideline for Contributors

An abstract without a draft paper may be considered (although priority will be given to submissions with a draft paper).

Include on the first page of your submission the following information: paper title, authors' names and affiliations, and contact information including an email address for the corresponding author.

If you are interested in publishing your conference paper in the Asian Journal of Law and Economics, please indicate your interest when you make your initial submission. The Asian Journal of Law and Economics is considering issuing a special issue from the conference proceedings and will welcome submissions.

Submitted abstracts and/or draft papers will be posted on the Conference website and will be circulated on site. If you do not wish your abstracts and/or papers to be posted or circulated, please indicate this when you make your initial submission.

Submissions should be sent, in PDF or MS Word format, to the following e-mail address: AsLEA2019@gmail.com

General Administration and Logistics
